Game Guidelines

You and your opponent will set up your individual Battleship boards, as indicated above. A review question will be read. The first team to answer correctly earns the right to "fire" upon their opponent. The persons "firing" may continue to fire until there is a "miss".

After everyone on the same team gets a "miss", there will be a new question and the opportunity to "fire" is earned again.

At the end of the designated game, each opponent tallies their score to see who won the battle.
