Dear Elder Son,

It was great to get your email this week. You always write the best emails, full of scripture references that I look up. I know life can get discouraging but hang in there. Chin up! And remember what your father always says: "The key to your problems is turning to a Higher Power. If you look up and move forward your path will be sure." Your father and I love you and know you will succeed!

Love,
Mom

PS — I looked it up, and there are 7 temples in California, 17 temples in Utah, and 6 temples in Arizona!
